LITTLE AT FIRST BUT MIGHTY AT LAST.

A traveler through a dusty road,
Strewed acorns o'er the lea,
And one took root and sprouted up,
And grew into a tree;
Love sought its shade at evening time,
To breathe its early vows,
And age was pleased, in beats of noon,
To bask beneath its boughs;
The dormouse loved its dangling twigs,
The birds sweet music bore,
It stood a glory in its place,
A blessing evermore!

A little spring had lost its way
Among the grass and fern;
A passing stranger scooped a well,
Where weary men might turn.
He walled it in, and hung with care,
A ladle at the brink—
He thought not of the deeds he did,
But judged that toil might drink.
He passed again—and lo! the well,
By summers never dried,
Had cooled ten thousand parching tongues,
And saved a life beside.

A dreamer dropped a random thought;
'Twas old, and yet 'twas new—
A simple fancy of the brain,
But strong in being true.
It shone upon a genial mind,
And lo! its light became
A lamp of life, a beacon ray,
A monitory flame.
The thought was small—its issue great;
A watch-fire on the hill,
It sheds its radiance far adown,
And cheers the valley still!

A nameless man amid the crowd,
That thronged the daily mart,
Let fall the word of hope and love,
Unstudied from the heart;
A whisper on the tumult thrown—
A transitory breath—
It raised a brother from the dust,
It saved a soul from death.
O germ! O fount! O word of love!
O thought at random cast!
Ye were but little at the first,
But mighty at the last.

COURTING UNDER DIFFICULTIES.

She was more than commonly pretty, her frank, engaging manners enhanced the charms of golden hair, pearly skin, and eyes like the blue skies of summer. At her father's death she would be heiress of the nice little sum of seventy thousand dollars, and though men generally profess not to be influenced by pecuniary matters in affairs of love, it is to be reasonably supposed that this prospective wealth by no means lessened the number of her adorers.

Among those most ardent, and perhaps sincere, was Will Dartmouth, with a heart larger than his purse, and very little thought or care for consequences.

Fortunately, old Jake never suspected the partiality of his daughter for Will; he would have put her on bread and water before he would have consented to the slightest intimacy with Will Dartmouth.

Jacob Blake was not in favor of marriage. Those who knew his circumstances were not surprised at this, for, to use a phrase more expressive than elegant, Mrs. Blake was a Tartar, with temper enough for two Tartars.

Old Jacob had to "walk spanish" for the most part, or suffer the consequences which usually descended on his head in the shape of any domestic utensil which happened to be lying handy.

A maiden sister of Mr. Blake resided in the family, whose principal business seemed to be to act a sort of echo to her brother and wife. Whatever they thought she thought too.

She regarded it as a primary sin for Kate to associate with the young men and this doctrine was perseveringly drilled into her neice, who, though she never dissented, had her own idea on the subject.

One day Mr. Blake and his wife went to Dedham to attend a fair, and Miss Peggy being absent at a friend's, Kate was left alone. Will Dartmouth in some way learned the condition of affairs, and early in the afternoon he came over to keep Kate company.

As her parents were not expected home until evening, Will felt perfectly secure in stopping awhile after tea; and he and Kate were having a jolly time popping corn in the old-fashioned frying pan, over the huge wood fire, when there was the sound of voices at the door.

"Good gracious!" cried Kate, white with alarm, "here is Aunt Peggy. O, Will what shall we do? She will scold me to death, besides father will be furious. Get under the lounge quick! Oh do for my sake!" Will could not withstand the pleading in Kate's eyes, and he deposited himself in the designated place.

Peggy's voice was heard in the hall—

"Be careful, Mr. Pike. There is a loose board there, I don't want to disturb my neice. Softly it may creak."

"Peggy, dear, where are you?" responded the squeaking voice of Esquire Pike, a widower of a year. "I can't tell which way you have gone."

"There Daniel! be easy. Good Heavens! Daniel Pike. Well I never!" and a report burst upon the air like the uncorking of a champagne bottle.

"Oh my!" cried Aunt Peggy, "what would brother Jacob say?—I declare, I haven't been kissed by a man since—

"Let Jake mind his own busines," retorted the Squire. "You and I can take care of ours without his help," and there followed a report similar to the first, only more of it.

"Do be quiet, Daniel, and let me get a light. Sit right down there afore the fire and make yourself at home."

A light was soon procured. Peggy divested herself of her wrappings, and blushing like a girl in her teens sat down opposite the squire.

"It's a very fine evening," said Peggy by the way of opening the conversation.

"Very," replied the Squire, drawing his arm over her back.

"Oh, good gracious, Daniel! don't set quite so nigh to me, I—that is I don't consider it strictly proper. Mercy! what's that?"

Both listened attentively.

"It was the wind rattling the window, I guess," said the Squire. "Don't you go to getting nervous, Peggy."

"I thought it was Katie waking up and if she should, I should never hear the last of it."

"Hark! There's a noise—I—"

"Gracious airth! it's bells. It's Jake and marm coming back! What shall I do? We're done! Oh Squire, 'tain't right for us to be nothing one to 'other! What shall I do?

"Tell me where to go, Peggy? Say the word? I'll go anywhere, for your sake, if it's up the chimney."

"Under the lounge, quick! It's wide and will hold well! Quick! don't delay a minute!"

The Squire obeyed, but the space was so well filled that it was with difficulty he could squeeze himself into so small a compass. And just as he succeeded, Mr. Blake and his wife entered the room, floundering along in the dark, for Peggy had deemed it best to extinguish the light. Jake made for the fire which still glowed with red coals, stumbled over the cricket and fell headlong against Peggy, who was standing bolt upright, trying to collect her scattered senses.

"The deuce!" cried Jake. "Look out there old woman, or you'll be down over me. It's dark as pitch here, and I've fell over the rocking chair, or the churn, I can't tell which. Hello! what's that?" reaching out his hand to feel his situation, and coming in contact with the bearded face of the Squire. "By golly! it's got whiskers! Peg! Peg! where are you

BE ASSESSED!

Democrats, attend to the assessments! See to it that every Democratic voter is duly assessed ten days before the election. The last day on which assessments can be made, is FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27th.

THE PROSPECT.

Democrats, the political prospect in Pennsylvania is gloriously bright. A great victory lies within our grasp. We have only to perfect our organization and to bring our entire vote to the polls to secure it. The recent elections show that the tide has turned. We can only be beaten by our own want of energy. The work to be done calls for the unabated diligence and the most active exertions of every conservative citizen. But little time is left to complete the necessary organization. It must be be done, done thoroughly, and done at once. We urge that meetings for organization be called at once wherever it has not already been effectually done. Let no time be lost. Let no means be left unemployed to bring out the entire vote of every borough and township. Work as men should who feel the importance of the great issues involved in the pending contest, and all will be well.

"WAR OF RACES."

The Erie Dispatch, a Radical paper, says:

It is not unlikely that if the authorities do not adopt prompt measures to stop the "war of races" going on in Tennessee, alluded to in our telegraphic columns this morning, the disease will become infectious and spread. If the colored people adopt this method of civilization themselves, it will not be long before their "wiping out" is demanded.

It is well that some Radical papers can see the inevitable result of their own teachings. No man of any sense ever doubted but that a "war of races" would be the result of an attempt to equalize the negroes with the whites in political privileges. Talk about peace! The liberties of the people are in more danger now than they ever were.

IF Pennsylvania should vote for the Radical Judge Williams, and for the Radical candidates generally throughout the State, in opposition to Judge Sharswood, the Democratic nominee, and the Democratic candidates generally, it would be hailed triumphantly by every Radical organ in the United States as proof positive that a majority of the voters of this great State are in favor of negro equality and negro rule, wherever there may happen to be more negroes than there are white men in a voting precinct. We believe that a large majority of the people of Pennsylvania really think with us, that it is not good for the negro thus to be thrust upon us. Let every man in the State vote intelligently on this question. The Radicals are for it, the Democrats are against it. The white people have much to gain by keeping negroes in their proper place, and by putting down negro Radicalism.

GAINS!—GAINS!!—In California the Democrats have gained 26,000 votes; they have gained 5,000 votes in Vermont; 16,000 in Maine; and, within a few months, they have also gained 11,000 votes in Connecticut; 20,000 in Kentucky; 2,000 in Rhode Island; 5,000 in New Hampshire; and 1,000 in Montana—in seven States and one Territory, 84,000 votes. The gains in single States, for instance, in Maine, in Connecticut, and in California, are relatively far greater than will be necessary to carry Ohio, Pennsylvania, and New York for the Democracy.

No sensible man can look at the situation of the country now and not very seriously doubt the propriety of any longer keeping in power the party which for six years has had uncontrolled possession of all the machinery of the government. There is not an honest and conscientious Republican in the land who does not frequently acknowledge to himself that there must be something very wrong with the party which he has so often assisted into power.

SEVERAL Democratic meetings are announced in this issue. Others will follow. Democrats—white men—rally! Turn out in your strength! The election is important. Our opponents know it, and are no doubt at work to do their best. Let us meet them with a determination to win, and we will win.

RIGGERS ON THE JURY.—Any white man who wishes to sit beside a negro in the jury box can express his desire by voting for Judge Williams and the rest of the Radical candidates.

THE REACTION.

The change of twenty thousand votes in the comparatively small votes of the States of Maine and California, is extremely significant. It is an early and startling symptom of the deep reaction in sentiment now progressing among the people. If it is followed in the same proportion throughout the country, it will produce a political revolution without example in our history. It can be explained on no tea-pot theory of obnoxious nominations here and local issues there, for many obnoxious nominations and local issues have been made by and with the Republicans for five years past, without any such result. The cause of the convulsion, which shakes at once the shores of the Atlantic and the Pacific, will be found deeper and more pervading, and must be sought for in national measures and the works of national politicians. Can we find any adequate cause for it there?

The year 1867 has witnessed greater outrages upon our system of free government than any that ever preceded it. A Federal Congress deliberately repudiated the Constitution its members were sworn to support, and governed the country outside of its fundamental law. This Congress stripped the President of the power vested in him by the constitution, and threatened to depose him because he protested against its usurpations. This Congress organized military despotisms over one-third of the territory of the Republic, wiped out the rights and governments of ten States, and set five tyrants over their people. At least two of the tyrants ruled their subjects with rods of iron, subverting courts and governments, enacting and repealing laws, and defying the judicial process of the United States, and received the special thanks of Congress for their services. This same Congress provided that the government of the ten Southern States should pass out of the hands of its satraps into the control of a degraded and barbarous race, and to that end at once enfranchised the negroes and disfranchised the most intelligent whites. This Congress attempted to perpetuate the rule of a political party, by establishing negro supremacy at the South, and so adjusting the balance of power in the Union as to give the negro South control of the whole.

Upon these usurpations Congress piled repeated insults to the superior race of the country. Personal and social equality were given to blacks at the point of the bayonet. At the seat of government blacks excluded whites from the voting places, or whites were compelled to follow negroes to the polls. Negroes were appointed to office for the purpose of annoying the whites. And in the Southern kingdoms, Congressional satraps insulted the democratic instincts of the people by aping the pomp of royalty, and Sickles and Sheridan drove the streets of Charleston and New Orleans in state carriages drawn by four and six horses, under the approving smiles of their Congressional employers.

Here, remarks the Lancaster Intelligencer, is the secret of the change in Maine and California. The progress towards imperialism and negro supremacy has startled and shocked the people. Last year's endorsement of the Constitutional Amendment was not designed by them as blank warrant of attorney to Congress to govern the country without and against Constitutional law. It neither authorized the creation of monarchies nor the establishment of negro supremacy in free Anglo-Saxon America. The people of California and Maine have voted that they mean to revoke the power their agents have abused. They intend to repudiate the representatives who repudiated the Constitution. They will teach Congress that the people are its masters—not its servants.

ONE OF DR. JORDY'S "DRAFT" OPERATIONS.

The intimation thrown out in our last that Dr. G. Jordy, the Radical candidate for the Legislature, charged a notoriously disabled man the sum of SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS to "clear" him of the draft, turns out to be entirely true. It is verified by the affidavit of Jordy's victim, Abraham Sowers, whose veracity no one will impeach. Here is Mr. Sower's statement:

State of Pennsylvania, }

I, Abraham Sowers, of lawful age, resident of the county and State aforesaid, who, after being duly sworn, deposeth and says—that he was drafted by the United States authorities in the last draft that was made, and believing that his physical disabilities would disable him from being useful in the service, besides endangering his life, he spoke of a desire to be exempt; whereupon G. Jordy, of Abbottstown, offered to procure his exemption, provided he would pay him six hundred dollars. On the day agreed upon, he, in company with Mr. Jordy, went to Chambersburg. After putting up at a public house, Jordy left, and in a short time afterwards returned with a paper, which, he told him, he should present to the examining physician when about being examined.—When his name was called, he was taken to another room and stripped of his clothing, when he handed the person in whose custody he was, the paper that Jordy gave him. After looking at it a little, he replied, "you are exempt already," and told him he was discharged and could go home. I paid him the six hundred dollars in cash, and further this deponent says not.

Witness present: mark.
H. J. MYERS.

State of Pennsylvania, }
Adams county, ss. }

Personally appeared before me the undersigned, Justice of the Peace in and for said county, Abraham Sowers, and subscribed and made oath to the foregoing affidavit, this 11th day of September, 1867. In testimony, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 11th day of September, 1867. HENRY THOMAS, J. P.

Mr. Sowers was exempted in the early part of the drafting business, and on a subsequent occasion, paid three hundred dollars "commutation." At the last draft, he fell into the hands of Jordy, who made $600 out of him, in the face of the fact that he "was exempt already," as stated by the examining physician. It will require but little reflection upon this case to bring every right-thinking voter to the conclusion that Jordy is not the man for a seat in the Pennsylvania Legislature.

We understand that there is a fifteen hundred dollar "draft" operation laid at Jordy's door. This may also come fully to light before long. Voters, think of these things.

ADDRESS OF THE STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—Read the able address of Hon. Wm. A. Wallace, and then proceed at once to perfect the organization of the Democratic party. Remember that with a full poll of our voters a glorious victory is sure. We can only be beaten by our own apathy. Then organize thoroughly in every election district.

THE Radical papers try to break the force of their overwhelming defeat in California by attributing it to the fact that they had two candidates in the field for Governor. They forget to tell their readers that the Democratic candidate has a majority of at least eight thousand over both his competitors. But it is hard for them to tell the truth about anything.

ADDRESS OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE ROOMS,
No. 728 SANSOM STREET,
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9th, 1867.

To the People of Pennsylvania:

The Radicals attempt to evade the practical issues of the canvass and to delude you into the support of their candidates.

They alone are accountable for the prostration of your business interests. They have deliberately sacrificed them in order to place in the hands of Southern Negroes, the balance of power in the Republic and thus preserve their own rule. More than two years have passed since peace was restored, and we still look in vain for increased products from the South to aid us in paying the interest on our debt, and for her prosperous customers to buy our woolen, iron and other manufactures.

Instead of receiving aid to pay our debt, we are taxed to maintain a freedmen's bureau and a standing army in the South. Instead of prosperous customers to increase our trade, every business interest languishes.

Radical mismanagement, a negro policy, and Radical extravagance, weigh down our energies and fetter our resources.

The whole expense of the War Department in 1860 was sixteen and a-half millions, whilst in 1867 it is estimated by the Treasury at forty-seven millions, both being periods of peace. To give the Negro the power to rule us, therefore, costs the nation annually thirty millions. Of this amount, Pennsylvania's share is at least one-tenth, and your industry must annually pay three millions of dollars to support a policy that closes your woolen mills and stops your factories.

In your State affairs, mismanagement, corruption and extravagance are the rule. In 1860, under Democratic power, the whole amount of money appropriated and expended, independent of funded debt and military expenses, as shown by the Treasury, was NINE HUNDRED AND NINETY-EIGHT THOUSAND DOLLARS. In 1864, excluding the same items, the Radicals appropriated and expended one million three hundred and seventy-nine thousand dollars. In 1865, excluding the same items, the Radicals appropriated and expended TWO MILLIONS AND ELEVEN THOUSAND DOLLARS. The reports of the Auditor General show these facts, and prove that IN SIX YEARS OF RADICAL RULE, YOUR CASH EXPENSES HAVE MORE THAN DOUBLED.

The men who have thus wasted your subsistance, prate of their loyalty and their sacrifices, and would maintain their hold upon the public treasury by fixing your attention upon other issues. You are oppressed by taxation through internal revenue and other machinery, as no other people ever were. It takes from you your legitimate profits and gives you no customers. It compels you to stop manufacturing and to discharge your workmen. Your goods remain unsold and your operatives suffer. Can you expect relief from this grinding taxation, so long as these enormous expenditures continue. Relief can only come through economy in public affairs, a reduction in your expenses, and the discharge of corrupt and extravagant officials.

It is their purpose to violate the great principle, "that each State has the right to determine the qualifications of its own electors," and give the negroes of Pennsylvania the balance of power between the two great political parties. Negro suffrage is to be forced upon you by Congressional enactment, and your Supreme Court is to be placed in harmony with that law, by electing Judge Williams, who is relied upon to decide that the negro is entitled to a right which you and your organic laws deny him. In the Senate of the United States, in July last, the recognized leader of the Radicals of this State, voted to proceed to consider a bill that was introduced by Wilson of Massachusetts, to effect this infamous purpose.

DEMOCRATS OF PENNSYLVANIA!

Let the result in California arouse you to renewed exertion. Work is to be done, and you must do it. Committees may plan and order, but the result depends upon yourselves. Individual effort is the road to victory. See your neighbor, encourage him, bring him to the polls. Perfect your organizations. Block your wards and townships. Subdivide the labor and perform it with energy.

Press home upon your adversaries the real issues of the campaign. Demand of them that they shall answer:

Are you for or against the Radical policy that destroys our business and closes our workshops, mills and factories, to give the negro the balance of power?

Are you for or against continued corruption, mismanagement and extravagance?

Are you for or against conceding to Congress, the right to allow the negro power to rule Pennsylvania?

By order of the Democratic State Central Committee.

WILLIAM A. WALLACE, Chairman.

THE TWO C'S.

On Monday week, Gov. English, of Connecticut, sent to Mr. Haight, the Governor elect of California, the following congratulation over the triumph of right principles in the late election in that State:

NEW HAVEN, Conn., September 9.

Hon. Henry H. Haight, Governor elect of California, (San Francisco:)

I congratulate you on your election. It will gladden the friends of constitutional liberty the country through.

JAMES E. ENGLISH.

To which, on the same day, Mr. Haight sent the following reply:

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., September 9.

To Governor J. E. English:

Thanks for your despatch. California has echoed the voice of Connecticut. You set us a glorious example—we have but followed where you led, in the sacred cause of constitutional liberty.

H. H. HAIGHT.

ATTORNEY General Binckley has issued a circular to all District, Attorneys and Marshals of the United States instructing them to recognize in all cases the sanctity of the Federal Constitution and the fact that the Government thereunder, with its several co-ordinate branches, executive, legislative and judicial, is the only lawful Government for this republic. The circular also warns the persons it addresses that many well-meaning citizens have in consequence of disturbing events that are now happily past, come to look with indulgence upon false and dangerous pretences that the Constitution is not the supreme law of the land, and also the most authentic proof of the will of the people; but that there are powers of government outside of the Constitution which may lawfully violate that instrument and the laws made in puruance of it. These errors they are called upon to avoid.

CONNECTICUT, Kentucky and California have been "reconstructed" by white men. Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey will follow the glorious trio. Push on the Democratic column, and down with the traitors at the other end of the line.

THE DAMAGE QUESTION.

The Gettysburg Star and Sentinel calls on the people of Adams county to elect a Republican to the House of Representatives "this fall, to make sure of the passage of the Bounty bill at the approaching session." Well, the Republicans in Adams county had a member in the Senate for the last two sessions and were represented by P. S. Houck, a Republican, last winter a year; yet no effort was even made to pass a bill to give aid to those who suffered by rebel raids and the battle of Gettysburg. Have the people any assurance beside the promise of the editors of the Star and Sentinel that a different result would follow if a Republican would be elected this fall? Two years ago your candidate for Senator pledged himself to procure the passage of such a bill if he would be elected; and last fall a year Mr. Houck, a Republican, also gave such assurances, yet what was done? Nothing, till the people elected a Democrat to the House, and the passage of the bill through that branch was the result. Why did not a Republican Assembly-man in the person of Mr. Houck co-operate with a Republican majority of last winter a year in the passage of the bill! The Republican Senator might have used his influence also. The editors speak of "some out-side aid which was thrown for the bill at the last session" which they say, can hardly be hoped for again. What does this aid consist of, and who procured it? It won't do, gentlemen—the people won't trust you again. You have deceived them twice, and that will do.

That's so, neighbors. The sufferers in this county have had enough of Radicalism in the State Legislature. They know that Nicholas Heltzel was a faithful and efficient worker in their interests in the last House, and will return him to represent them again.

It is no exaggeration to say that Mr. Heltzel, by his personal influence and appeals, secured votes enough to carry the bill through the lower House. Had McConaughy been half as effective, it might have passed the Senate also.—Give us a Democratic Legislature, and a damage bill will follow—not otherwise.

ANTIETAM.

The Soldiers' Cemetery at Antietam was dedicated on Tuesday last, the fifth anniversary of the battle there. The crowd in attendance was very large—fully equal to that present at the dedication here, and some think it greater. Among the distinguished personages present were President Johnson, Secretaries Seward, McCulloch and Welles, Postmaster General Randall, nearly all the Foreign Ministers, and some eight or ten Governors of States. Two regiments, the National Guards and Grey Reserves, of Philadelphia, under command of Gen. Peter Lyle, (Democratic candidate for Sheriff,) were present, as were several smaller bodies of military from other localities.

Gov. Swann, of Maryland, made some very appropriate introductory remarks, when a hymn, to "Old Hundred," was sung by the vast assemblage The cornerstone of the monument was then laid according to Masonic rites, after which Ex-Gov. Bradford, of Maryland, delivered the oration, many portions of which were warmly applauded. At its conclusion, a poem was read by Hon. G. L. Cranmer, Commissioner from West Virginia.

Gov Swann then introduced President Johnson, who was greeted with applause He spoke briefly and to the point. In alluding to those "who sleep in silence and peace after the earnest conflict has ceased," he hoped that the living would live in friendship and peace. In conclusion, he said: "You, my fellow-citizens, have my earnest wishes, as you have had my efforts in times gone by, in the earliest and most trying perils, to preserve the Union of these States, to restore peace and harmony to our distracted and divided country, and you shall have my last efforts in vindication of the flag of the Republic and of the Constitution of our Fathers." [Applause.]

The benediction was then pronounced, when the President, Cabinet officers, Governor Swann, and others, left the platform. Colonel J. M. Moore and his assistants formed the military, who escorted the President and his party to the cars at Keedysville, which place they left at about 7 o'clock for Washington and Baltimore.

Gov. Geary was on hand, and made a speech after the presidential party had left. It is to be hoped that his friends will be able to stop his twaddle. Thaddeus Stevens never said a truer thing than when he pronounced Geary a failure.

We have neither time nor space to day for a full description of the Cemetery or the dedicatory ceremonies, but may allude to the matter again.

THERE is a general discussion as to the best way to pay the public debt. The matter is plain as daylight: Put the thieves out of office and put honest men in. Retrench the expenditures of the government to one hundred millions. Cut the Freedman's Bureau swindle from the Treasury, and thus save millions to the people. If the negroes are fit to vote, they are competent to sustain themselves. Take the military forces from the South and muster them out of service, and leave the people there to "reconstruct" themselves, as they were doing before Congress interfered and put them further from the Union than they were ever before. Cut off the myriads of parasites now hanging upon the Treasury. Retrench expenditures until the income largely exceeds the outgo. Apply the surplus to the payment of the public debt, and the whole "question" will be answered.—Erie Observer.

FOOTSTEPS OF FREEDOM.—The New Orleans Common Council, appointed by the late satrap Sheridan, have elected for assistant recorders three negroes and one white man. Several other important municipal offices have also been filled by the appointment of negroes. The world moves, and these are footsteps in the path of freedom. So the Radical papers tell us.

THE elections in New Hampshire, Rhode Island, West Virginia and Maine all show greatly diminished Radical majorities. The victories in California and Montana are overwhelming. Look out for thunder from Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio in October, and from New York and other States in November.

DEMOCRATS of Adams, our opponents have but one hope in regard to the county, and that is, to catch us napping—sleeping at our posts—as was too much the case two years ago. That lesson should be a warning for all time. We can only be successful by doing our work thoroughly. COMMENCE NOW!

MARYLAND voted on the new Constitution on Wednesday. The city of Baltimore gives 10,584 in its favor, whilst the returns from the counties look very well also—Frederick 200 majority in favor, Carrol 300 ditto, Washington 300 ditto, Alleghany 225 ditto, &c. The majority throughout the State for the Constitution will doubtless be very large. "The good work goes bravely on."

THE constantly reiterated rumors of the removal of Secretary McCulloch are stated by persons who are interested in a rise of gold. There will be no more changes made in the Cabinet for some time.

TOWN, COUNTY AND SURROUNDING COUNTIES.

The Compiler for the Campaign.—Only Twenty-five Cents!—We will furnish the COMPILER (large as it now is) at the low figure of 25 cents for the campaign, ending with the issue of October 11. "Circulate the documents!" The COMPILER stands by the white race against the mongrelism which Radical leaders are endeavoring to establish in this country, and will resist the infamous design at every point. White men everywhere must arouse to thwart the aims of the Radical fanatics and demagogues, and no better help can be found than the circulation of newspapers published in the interest of the white man. The COMPILER is doing, and will continue to do, its share.

The Fair.—The Fifth Annual Fair of the Adams County Agricultural Society will be held here next week, commencing on Tuesday morning and closing on Friday evening. The grounds are ready, and all the indications promise a grand success. We hear of people coming from all quarters, attracted, no doubt, by the battle-field as well as the Fair Let them come. Preparations are being made for all, no matter how great the crowd.

Agricultural Fairs.—The season of the year is approaching, says an agricultural journal, when the happy Fair days will come. We are not certain that some poetic feeling does not overcome us when contemplating these happy rural gatherings. Here are the mellow days of autumn tinged with their Indian summer haziness. These are happy times for lovers, for it is such a sweet occasion for them to ride together to the Fairs, and then walk around arm in arm, and view the various objects of interest. It is a happy time for married people, too, for the whole family must go to the Fair; and husband and wife, and the dearly beloved children, are up betimes, and pack themselves snugly away and ride to the Fair. Old and young, little and big, male and female, all attend, and all are happy. Fair days are holidays—rural holidays—and delightful ones, too.—Every county should have its agricultural society and its agricultural fairs.—Nothing will give such an impetus to farming matters. Nothing will be so instrumental in introducing the best breeds of cattle, horses, sheep, hogs, etc., or in making the farmers acquainted with the merits of the best plows, cultivators, harrows, reapers and mowers, fanning mills, cider mills, and in fact all kinds of farm machinery, even down to churns. Every department of industry and mechanism will, or ought to be exhibited—and thus farmers derive the greatest benefit.—Well-to-do farmers will go to other counties, or other States even, to buy good stock, so as to exhibit and take premiums,—and thus good stock will be introduced that would not have been otherwise.—The ladies, too, will compete with one another in making superior articles of butter, cheese lard, preserves, pickles, etc., or in specimens of their needlework. A healthy emulation is thus cultivated. People meet, form new acquaintances, acquire new opinions and more enlarged ideas, get the rough corners knocked off, and become better fitted for society. All encouragement to Agricultural Fairs.

Excursion Trains.—During Fair week, excursion trains will be run on the Gettysburg Railroad, to accommodate the eastern portion of the county, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 24, 25, 26 and 27. Special trains will leave Hanover at 9 A. M., reaching Gettysburg at 10—to leave Gettysburg, on return, at 5 P. M., reaching Hanover at 6. Tickets for the round trip—from Hanover 75 cents; New Oxford 50 cents; Gulden's and Granite Stations 30 cents. Tickets must be procured before getting on the train, or full fare will be charged.

Property Sales.—John Trostle, Ex'r. of Henry Beitler, dec'd., has sold the Farm of said dec'd., in Cumberland township, 60 acres, to Samuel G. Kennel, for $1200. Isaac F. Brinkerhoff, Executor of Samuel Herman, dec'd., on Saturday sold the farm of said deceased, in Straban township, 186 acres, to Henry King, of East Berlin, at $32 per acre, cash. Jacob Stock, of New Oxford, has recently sold two properties—one, a lot with one-story house, to Mrs. Shultz, of Hunterstown, for $1,100; the other, a lot and house, for $300, to Nicholas Heltzel, Esq. Charles Zenft has recenty sold his mill and farm (160 acres) in Oxford township, to Abraham Hostetter, for $16,000. The mill and 15 acres have recently been resold for $5,000. The Mansion Farm of George Young, deceased, in the vicinity of Hanover, was recently sold to George Krugh, for $155 per acre.

Bought.—Jacob Sander, of Mountpleasant township, has purchased the property of Samuel Shultz, in Hanover—price $1,450 cash.

Recovered.—Adj. J. W. Cress, whose horse was stolen on the night of the 24th, ult., recently recovered him, with the saddle, bridle and halter. The horse came to the premises of Mr. Abraham Rudisell, near Hanover, on the morning of the 25th, and was taken up by him.

Brass Band.—The organization of a Brass Band is talked of among the young men of New Oxford. A good band is a delightful "institution" in any town.

A Chance for Bargains.—Duphorn & Hoffman are now opening at their store, on the northwest corner of the Diamond, Gettysburg, one of the largest assortments of Dry Goods of all kinds, of the latest styles and patterns, ever brought to Gettysburg, which having been bought for cash, they are selling very cheap. Call and examine their assortment. It

The Indian Doctor will be at Gettysburg, at the Eagle Hotel, from Tuesday, the 24th, till Friday, the 27th inst., where he will examine and prescribe to all such as need his services. He treats all manner of Chronic Diseases that flesh is heir to. His medicines are composed entirely of Roots, Barks, Plants, &c. The best of certificates can be shown by him of such as have been cured in Adams county. It

Hog Cholera.—The Cholera and Throat Disease in Hogs is prevailing, to a fearful extent, in some sections. It is indeed much to be regretted that the farmers and stock-owners should, in these pressing times, suffer so much loss from these terrible diseases.

It is stated by some that have used the preparations, that Foutz's Celebrated Horse and Cattle Powders will cure it; and if occasionally used, this time of the year, will entirely prevent the Disease. This is a simple remedy and easy to get—we believe all respectable stores keep them for sale. We would advise owners of Hogs to give it a trial, as great good can be accomplished by its use. It

For Sacramental purposes, Speer's Wines are being adopted by Churches, and on account of their purity and reliability, are extensively used in hospitals, for invalids and convalescents. They are the pure juice of the grape.

Road Views.—An unusually large number of Reports of Views of Roads were presented, and confirmed nisi, at the last Court—as follows:

The Viewers appointed under special act of the Legislature to vacate part of the State road at the intersection of Carlisle street, in this Borough, made report, vacating said road between the foot of Carlisle street and a point opposite lands of Prof. Ehrehart, and opening a new road from said point through lands of Prof. Ehrehart, Geo. W. McClellan and Joseph Wible, to North Washington street, near the College. The Report is signed by two of the viewers—Mr. Herbst, the third viewer named in the act, declining to serve.

The same viewers also made report of damages, occasioned by the opening of the above cross road—to which report exceptions were filed.

Viewers were also appointed to vacate that portion of the old Carlisle road between the foot of Carlisle street and the new cross road above referred to.

[The object aimed at by the parties moving in the above views, is to extend Carlisle st. on a straight line, by closing up the diverging roads to Mummasburg and Harrisburg, to a point beyond Stevens' Run.]

Report of viewers laying out a public road in Tyrone township, from a point on the public road leading from Myers' Mill to the Oxford and Carlisle road near house of Jacob March, to a point in the old Menallen road, near house of George Miller, confirmed nisi, to be opened of width of 25 feet.

Report of viewers laying out a private road from a point on the road running from Fairfield to Maria Furnace, to the house of Samuel King, confirmed nisi, to be opened of width of 20 feet.

Report of viewers adverse to laying out a public road in Latimore township, from the "Old Baltimore road," to the Gettysburg State road, near Jacob R. Larew, was confirmed nisi.

Report of viewers laying out a public road in Highland township, from John Hammer's factory to the road leading from Bream's Tavern to Weigle's Mill, confirmed nisi, to be opened of width of 30 feet.

Report of viewers laying out a public road from a point on the old Carlisle road to a point on the Hanover and Carlisle turnpike, near Wm. B. Brandon, confirmed absolute, to be opened of width of 22 feet.

Report of viewers laying out a public road from the Carlisle and Oxford road, near Wm. B. Brandon, in Huntington township, to the Petersburg and Pinegrove road, near the "White House," confirmed nisi, to be opened of the width of 22 feet.

Report of viewers laying out a public road from the Wierman Mill road, near lands of Winant and Myers, to the Hunterstown and Rossto wn road, near house of James Wilt, in Huntington township, confirmed nisi, to be opened of the width or 22 feet.

Report of reviewers adverse to laying out a road from the old Baltimore road, near lands of Adam Winand and John C. Hoecht; to Livingston's School House, on the State road, confirmed nisi.

Report of viewers laying out a public road from a point on the Carlisle road near the store of Adam Lerew, in Latimore township, to a point on the road leading from Wolford's Mill to Dillsburg, confirmed nisi, to be opened of the width of 25 feet.

Report of viewers vacating and supplying part of a public road in Liberty township, from a point on the public road leading from Irwin's Mill to the Millerstown and Emmittsburg road, to a point on the public road to Waynesboro', confirmed nisi, to be opened of the width of 24 feet.

The exceptions to report of viewers laying out a public road from a point near the property of Henry Decker, on the road leading from Hunterstown to Hann's Station, to a point on the Gettysburg and York turnpike, were dismissed, and upon a petition for a review the Court appointed Wm. Ross, David Schriver and Adam Rebert, reviewers.

Report of viewers laying out a public road from a point on the York and Gettysburg turnpike near the old black-smith shop on land of Jacob Rinehart, to a point on the State road leading from Gettysburg to Harrisburg, on line of lands of John Cleveland and Mary E. Myers, in Straban township, confirmed nisi, to be opened of width of 25 feet.

Report of viewers vacating and supplying part of the public road from Arendtsville to the Cumberland county line (the old Shippensburg road), confirmed absolute, and the supplied part ordered to be opened to width of 22 feet.

Save Your Doctor's Bill.—When Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will cure coughs, colds, bleeding at the lungs, and arrest the fell destroyer, Consumption, it does more than most physicians can do. The use of a single bottle, costing one dollar, will satisfy the incredulous that they need look no further for the required aid.

Autumn is again upon us, and soon Winter will clasp us in his frigid embrace. Beware of Coughs and Colds; they often terminate in Consumption. Coe's Cough Balsam is a pleasant but certain remedy. It is excellent for Croup among the children.

Oporto Grape Culture.—The following letter has come into our hands, and we publish it for the information of those who doubt the purity of Speer's Wine.

This is to certify that Mr. Alfred Speer is a resident of this village, and, to my personal knowledge, has devoted a number of years to the manufacture of pure and valuable wines. He has a large vineyard in view of my residence, and has been for some time engaged in cultivating the Port Grape. The Port Grape Wine cannot be excelled by any American wine. It is bottled by Mr. Speer every season in large quantities, but not disposed of until it attains the age of four years. D. B. SICKLES,
Central National Bank, New York.
Passaic, Oct. 20th, 1865.

Some of our druggists have this wine direct from the vineyard.

BLACK A LUCKY COLOR.—The white people of the border counties of Pennsylvania were robbed of their food and clothing during the war, but the Radicals in Congress never voted them a yard of muslin or a pound of bread. The Southern negroes lost nothing and gained everything, and the Radicals have fed and clothed them at the public expense. Every man who votes the Radical ticket will applaud the Radical Congress' liberality to the blacks and contempt for the whites.—Chambersburg Spirit.

THAD. Stevens and his Radical associates in Congress appropriated twelve thillion dollars a year to the Freedmen's Bureau, to feed and clothe negroes who had gained their freedom by the war. But they failed to appropriate one single dollar for the relief of the citizens of the border counties of Pennsylvania.

—John Hickman, the Radical candidate for the Legislature in Chester county, declared as follows in a speech at West Chester, the other day: "I am for the negro all the time, and against Andy Johnson." Hickman is one of Judge Williams' warmest supporters.

THE MAINE ELECTION.

The Portland Argus says:

"The election in this State on Monday was one of the most remarkable in the history of the State. It demonstrated, even more emphatically than California the week previous, the irresistible popular reaction which is going on against revolutionary Radicalism throughout the country. The leaders of the Radical party made strenuous efforts to bring out its full strength. Their organization was perfect, and the contributions of the army of office holders supplied ample means. They put their most influential speakers upon the stump, and their numerous party organs flooded the State with appeals to the prejudices, passions, and party pride of their disciples. No effort was spared on their part; no stone was left unturned. But it was in vain. The Democracy, with scarcely the semblance of an organization, without funds, without speeches or concert of action, came out in their strength, and made a relative gain upon them of fifteen thousand votes, elected the officers in several counties, and largely increased representation in the Legislature. It was the spontaneous uprisnig of the people, disgusted with Radical misrule and the eternal commotion and ruin which it entails."

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 8.—Gov. Helm died at 12.30 to-day, at his residence near Elizabethtown. His funeral will take place on Tuesday, just one week from the day of his inauguration. His death having occurred during the first two years of his term, the law makes it the duty of the Chief Justice to order an election for Governor, to be held on the first Monday of August next, meantime all the powers and duties appertaining to the office must be exercised by Lieutenant Governor Stevenson

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, SEPT. 20, 1867.

DREADFUL CASUALTY.—On Saturday week a daughter of Dr. Blakistone, of St. Mary's county, Md., aged 11 years, having occasion to perform some household duty in the kitchen, caught fire and her clothes soon became enveloped in flames. A servant who was present attempted to extinguish the fire, but without effect, and the child in its agony rushed into the yard where its cries soon arrested the attention of Mrs. Blakistone. Seeing its condition, this lady, with the brave and unselfish instincts of a mother, sought to put the fire out by enveloping the child with her own clothing, but finding this of no avail, she sought the house with a view of obtaining a blanket to smother the flames. Before she had proceeded many steps she discovered her own clothing to be on fire, and all other efforts proving unavailing, she threw herself upon a bed and sought to smother the flames by drawing the covering around her. But this was without effect. The fire still progressed and soon the flames had done their work upon both sufferers. Mrs. Blakistone survived but a few hours, and the child died during the afternoon of the day following.

THE Governor of this State, John W. Geary, has been over at Washington City to see Grant about disloyal Maryland. He had better stay at home and save what little of reputation is left to him. He never held a situation in his life that he did not prove a failure in.

GEN. Jackson once said:—"The Democrat who reads his county paper regularly, is bullet-proof against the falsehoods of the enemy. The weekly arrival of his paper is like the visit of a committee-man to warm him of what is going on, and to prepare him for election-day. It posts not only him self in what is new and important, but it enables him to post others, who look to him for counsel and instruction."

THE Athens Republican, a Radical newspaper of Bradford county, has turned into the Democratic line.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, SEPT. 29, 1867.

FALL MANURING FOR CORN.

It is sometimes a question with farmers whether they ought to apply manure to land in the autumn, which they intend to plant to corn or potatoes the following spring—letting it remain on the surface through the winter. Frequently it is convenient to do so. Spring is a hurrying season. Rains delay the work; mud hinders the drawing of manure. If they can keep it without waste through the summer and fall, adding meanwhile ingredients to swell the bulk, and increase the richness, they can draw and spread it in the winter even, when there is more leisure.

But does it waste by being exposed to the elements through the winter? We think not, chemically at least. It may be washed or floated off from steep hillsides, or flats liable to overflow. But on level or moderately rolling land, there is probably not only no waste in applying the manure in the autumn or winter, but it will benefit the crop grown the next season, much more than if put on in the spring. Some of our best farmers have adopted this practice, and they find it to work well. How can the manure waste? Will any one tell us? As no fermentation takes place, consequently no gases are evolved to passed off. But it dries, says one, when there is snow on the ground, by the wind and frosts. Draw out a load of manure; and spread it, and in a day it will not weigh more than a quarter as much as when put on the wagon. True, but what dries out of it? Water—nothing else of value. Dry straw is just as enriching as wet straw. It is questionable even whether barn-yard manure will lose any of its fertilizing qualities if spread on the surface of the ground in mid summer, and exposed to the sun and winds till completely dried. The gases that are given off, and taint the air, are of little value to the crop. They will return in sufficient quantities to the plant, by absorption through its leaves.

The advantages of manuring on the surface in the fall are great. Much of the soluble part of the manure is taken up by the water, and carried into the soil, where it is ready for immediate use by the following crop. If the ensuing summer be very dry, a coat of ordinary barn-yard manure may not materially benefit corn, if put on in the spring just before plowing, from the fact that it will not decompose, and become availble plant food, from want of moisture early in the season. At any rate if applied in the fall the manure would stimulate the corn quicker than if put on late in the spring. If it be wet ground to which the manure is applied, it will cause the grass to sprout earlier and ranker, thus furnishing considerable pasture for sheep in the spring, of the grass will be so much gained in green manure if turned under. We believe in manuring in the fall. Clean the hog pens, scrape the barn-yards draw some muck, empty the sinks, and with-al prepare for making and saving manure during the winter, so that next autumn will find you with a more ample supply than ever before.—Rural New Yorker.

POULTRY IN ORCHARDS.—Poultry are very effective destroyers of the canker-worm, and should always have access to orchards infested by these destructive insects, as they pick up the pests when they descend from the trees to enter the ground as moths in Spring. They scratch the soil in search of the pupæ, which lie hidden beneath the surface, and are persevering devourers of these destructive insects in every stage of their existence.

SALT FOR POTATOES.—A correspondent of the Sorgo Journal has succeeded in raising good crops of large potatoes without rot, for the last fourteen years. He scatters a tablespoonful of a mixture of lime and salt—one part lime and two parts salt—on each hill when the potatoes are six or eight inches high. He hills up the potatoes, but only once—when the buds for bloom appear. When dug he puts a quart of salt to each fourteen bushels of potatoes and keeps them cool and dry.

Boys, in the busy season, are generally sent to the pasture to drive up the cows. Often they have an adjourned game at ball to play, or a fish to catch, hence, if not specially cautioned and watched, will "put the cow through on double-quick." This is a bad practice. It injures the health of the animal, vitiates their milk, and diminishes the flow of it. Cows in warm weather and with distended udders, should never be hurried in this way.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

TO the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions.

The Grand Inquest of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, inquiring in and for the county of Adams, at August Sessions, 1867, beg leave to report:

That we visited the Alms House and County Jail. We found the paupers well provided for, the buildings clean and neat, and everything comfortable. The fencing has been much improved around the premises. The Steward deserves the thanks of the county for the faithful attention and care. We would recommend that the Bake House be remodled and raised one story, and coal be used in the oven instead of wood.

At the Jail we found the rooms clean, the prisoners comfortable, the Sheriff obliging and careful, and would recommend that some improvement be made in preventing the escape of prisoners, at the back wall of the front building, by placing iron railing, with spears, on the wall, or raising the wall.

SEWING MACHINES.

The Grover & Baker.—The Best in Use.

THESE Machines have become so well known that little need be said by way of recommendation. They have taken the first premium at all the late State Fairs, and are universally acknowledged to be the BEST in use by all who have tried them. The "Grover & Baker Stitch" and the "Shuttle Stitch" are going that have been attained by no other Machine. They are the only machines that sew and embroider with perfection. These Machines are peculiarly adapted to Family use. They are noiseless, run directly from the spool without rewinding, and are simple in their construction. They are easy to manage, and can be worked by almost any child. Every family should have one. They save labor, they save time, and they save money, and do their work better than it can be done by hand.

The undersigned having been appointed Agent for the above Machines, has established an Agency in Fairfield, Adams county, where he will always have on hand a supply. Persons wishing to buy will please call and examine for themselves.

☞ Needles and Thread will also be supplied.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS.

WE take pleasure in announcing to Dealers in Fertilizers, and the Agricultural public, that we have within the past year more than doubled our facilities for the manufacture of our RAW BONE PHOSPHATE, to an extent unequalled by any other House in the United States or Europe. These facilities not only include the enlargement of our old established works in Philadelphia, known as the PELAGIC AND EVER NORMAL CHEMICAL WORKS, but also the purchase of extensive and well stocked works at Chicago, Ills., with all the necessary machinery, cars, &c., to conduct the business. This establishment alone has produced, annually, over 5,000 tons of dried Bones and Meat, and is capable of being largely increased. We desire, by the closest supervision, to conduct these two concerns so that our customers will derive a practical benefit from their consolidation, in obtaining a MANURE which shall maintain a standard and uniform quality, and at the lowest possible price.
